Day 3: June 6, 2027: Volterra and San Gimignano

Today we embark on a spectacular full-day excursion into the heart of the Tuscan countryside to discover two of Italy's most captivating medieval hill towns, Volterra and San Gimignano. We begin in the ancient fortress city of Volterra, world-renowned for its deep Etruscan roots and its exquisite, locally crafted alabaster. As you walk through this historic town, you will marvel at original Etruscan walls that still stand proud today. Together, we will explore the majestic cobblestone heart of the downtown area, including the grand Palazzo dei Priori and the beautiful Romanesque Duomo, leaving you ample time to tour the incredible Guarnacci Etruscan Museum independently if you choose. From Volterra, our journey continues to the breathtaking skyline of San Gimignano, an iconic UNESCO World Heritage site celebrated for its soaring medieval towers, priceless works of art, and formidable gastronomic traditions. Famous for its vibrant saffron fields, sweet local honey, and savory wild boar (cinghiale), this vibrant town is also the proud birthplace of Vernaccia di San Gimignano, Tuscany's premier, crisp white wine. After marveling at the town's legendary frescoed churches, lunch is entirely on your own to discover local flavors, or you can allow your tour manager to arrange a special reservation at a neighborhood trattoria to savor authentic wild boar pasta paired perfectly with a glass of chilled Vernaccia. The rest of the afternoon is yours to enjoy at leisure—perfect for climbing to the peak of a medieval tower for sweeping panoramic views, browsing boutique shops, or sampling world-class gelato. We will return to our hotel in the evening for a relaxing dinner.

Day 4: June 07, 2027, Collodi, Gargnano, Vinci:

Following another wonderful breakfast, we embark on an enchanting journey through the rolling heart of Italy as we discover the hidden gems of the Tuscan countryside. Our day begins with a scenic drive through the fairytale hamlet of Collodi, the magical birthplace of the legendary Pinocchio. From there, we venture into the wooded hills of the peaceful village of Gargnano, a secret virtually untouched by outside tourism. Here, we will stand in awe before the majestic Albero delle Streghe (The Witches' Tree), a spectacular 600-year-old monumental oak shrouded in local myth and lore. We then follow the winding roads through Tuscany's most magnificent, untouched vistas to the historic town of Vinci, the iconic birthplace of Leonardo da Vinci. After an immersive, pre-arranged exploration of the fascinating Leonardo da Vinci Museum, we will transition from historic genius to authentic Tuscan living at a breathtaking hillside azienda agricola (agricultural estate). Together, we will sample the estate's exceptional organic wines and freshly pressed olive oil, followed by a spectacular, homemade farmhouse lunch lovingly prepared by the vintner's own wife and mother. This is the ultimate expression of the true Tuscan lifestyle—unhurried, authentic, and unforgettable.

Day 5: June 08, 2027, Firenze: Unveil the timeless brilliance of Florence, the cradle of the Renaissance, on a captivating full-day excursion. Our journey begins alongside an expert local guide at the world-renowned Accademia Gallery, founded in 1563 as Europe's premier school for the arts. Here, you will stand in awe before Michelangelo's colossal David and his evocative, unfinished Four Prisoners. Stepping out into the historic heart of the city, we will trace the footsteps of literary genius as we pass by Dante's home, before arriving at the breathtaking Piazza del Duomo. Prepare to be spellbound by the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Flower—a jewel of Italian Gothic architecture—complemented by Giotto's magnificent Bell Tower and Lorenzo Ghiberti's legendary bronze "Gates of Paradise" on the Baptistry. After catching a glimpse of the majestic Uffizi Palace, we will enjoy a classic stroll across the historic Ponte Vecchio, Florence's iconic "Old Bridge" celebrated for its shimmering artisan gold shops. You will have free time for lunch or shopping. To crown this unforgettable day, we will ascend to Piazzale Michelangelo to capture a breathtaking, panoramic view of the Florentine skyline before bidding a fond arrivederci to this magical city, returning to your hotel just in time to enjoy a relaxing dinner.

Day 6: June 9, 2027, Siena, and the Chianti Wine Road: Following a delicious breakfast, we depart for a full-day excursion to the spellbinding city of Siena and the scenic Chianti wine road. We pause for a poignant visit to the solemn yet beautiful Florence American Cemetery and Memorial site, a deeply moving tribute set against the Tuscan hills. We meet our local guide in Siena, a city steeped in myth and legendary origins. Siena is said to have been founded by Senius, the son of Remus. Siena is a masterpiece of remarkable color—so distinct that it inspired the famous Earth tone "sienna," lending its name to everything from a classic Crayola crayon to a modern Toyota. The city truly shines through its pride and pageantry during the legendary Palio, when the 17 historic contrade (medieval neighborhoods) proudly fly their vibrant flags. We will marvel at the famous bowl-shaped Piazza del Campo, anchored by the majestic Public Palace and its soaring Mangia Tower, one of Italy's tallest and most iconic medieval structures. Our exploration takes us inside Siena's awe-inspiring, zebra-striped marble Cathedral. Transformed in the 13th century into one of the finest examples of Italian Gothic architecture, this cathedral's striking black-and-white interior is a treasure trove of genius, featuring breathtaking floor inlays by Domenico Beccafumi alongside masterful works by Nicola Pisano, Michelangelo, Pinturicchio, Donatello, Jacopo della Quercia, and Lorenzo Ghiberti. Enjoy free time for lunch on your own. Be sure to indulge in Siena's world-famous confections, like the rich, spiced Panforte and delicate Ricciarelli almond cookies, before we conclude our unforgettable day and return to your hotel for dinner.

Day 7: June 10, 2027: Viareggio and Pisa: Today we will head for the famous resort town of Viareggio on the Versilian coast of the Tuscan Riviera. Today is market day so bargain hunters can find many “treasures”. If shopping isn't your cup of tea, you might prefer to walk along the Mediterranean Sea, or to sit in a café on the boardwalk. Next, we head to Pisa with the Fantastic “Campo Dei Miracoli”, the Baptistery and the Cathedral and the world-famous Leaning Tower. We will visit the inside of the famous Cattedrale Metropolitana Primaziale di Santa Maria Assunta, - the Duomo of Pisa. (Your tour manager will assist with the reservations for those travelers wishing to climb the tower's 296 steps. To climb you must request tickets in advance with Patrizia who will reserve and purchase the tickets for you). Cost is 25 euros per person and is limited to availability. Lunch is on your own. ~Breakfast & Dinner at your hotel.

Day 8: June 11, 2027: Porto Venere and Le Cinque Terre, Liguria

After an early breakfast, we depart by private motor coach for the coastal city of La Spezia in the beautiful region of Liguria, just northwest of Tuscany. To experience this breathtaking coastline at its absolute best, we will board a ferry boat to approach the charming villages of the Ligurian Riviera by sea. Our maritime adventure begins at Porto Venere, the most southern village of the gulf, where the spectacular Church of San Pietro and an ancient Genoese fortress stand proudly over the waves. Next, we cruise to charming Vernazza, widely considered the most beautiful of the villages, where you can marvel at its tiny, picture-perfect port and historic stone arches. We then ferry to Monterosso al Mare, celebrated for its lovely beaches and scenic coastal charm. You will have plenty of time to shop, sightsee, and immerse yourself in the culinary delights of the region—including fresh local pesto, authentic warm focaccia, and exceptional seafood caught straight from the sea. After an unforgettable day along the water, we return by train to meet our driver who will escort us back to the historic Villa delle Rose for a relaxing dinner and evening.

Nota Bene: Guest must be able to walk approximately 2-3 miles over uneven and cobble stone surface, inclines and 40 to 65 steps. Walking is a crucial part of the tour everyday. Most Italian cities do not have accommodations for people with mobility issues which makes walking and climbing stairs an essential pre-requisite. We regret we cannot assist travelers with disabilities or mobility issues. Comfortable walking shoes are essential! Due to the nature of this tour, it is not appropriate for guests using walkers or with mobility issues. If you have any concerns about the physical demands of this tour, please do not hesitate to ask us.

Day 9: June 12, 2027: Carrara Marble Mountains: Following a wonderful breakfast, we journey into the Apuan Alps to discover Colonnata, an ancient hilltop hamlet nestled high in the comune of Carrara. These stunning mountains are home to the world's most exquisite and prized Calacatta marble, which has been continuously quarried here since 40 BC—yet incredibly, an abundance of this beautiful white stone still remains. We will tour these breathtaking peaks to learn the fascinating history of the excavation process while soaking in incredible, sweeping views that stretch down to the Versilia valley and the sea below. Beyond its world-famous stone, Colonnata is a legendary destination for food lovers as the birthplace of the prized Lardo di Colonnata, a creamy pork fat delicacy seasoned with local herbs and aged inside marble basins. We will have the special opportunity to taste this melt-in-your-mouth treat and sit down for a fabulous lunch with local wine at a tiny, authentic trattoria. Afterward, we return to the Villa delle Rose to prepare for our departure and celebrate the conclusion of our journey with a luscious Farewell Dinner.

Day 10: June 13, 2027: Departure: For those not staying independently this will be the last day in Italy. Breakfast at the hotel and your tour manager will arrange a driver and transfer to Florence airport for the flight home. Time to say ARRIVEDERCI!
