FESTA DI NATALE – A Christmas Tradition

Festa di Natale at the beautiful il Fornaio restaurant is the annual Christmas Dinner of the Italian Cultural Society and it is a way for our community to come together to give thanks and celebrate. This is an elegant, festive and joyful occasion which features a delicious 5-course feast of Italian foods and desserts and some great entertainment. We always take the entire restaurant for this event and we keep the price affordable. Festa Di Natale features traditional holiday music and songs. This year your Italian and Christmas favorites will be performed by Mike Trucco on the accordion and the Society Singers. Festa di Natale is also a fund-raising dinner and the Raffle this year features a GRAND PRIZE Special Deluxe Gift Basket “TASTE OF ITALY” with 22 Italian specialty food items. This basket will be delivered directly to the winner from Bagliani’s Market of Hammonton, New Jersey and you do not have to attend to win it. There will also be door prizes Galore at the Dinner for those who attend. Please make your reservation early. BUON NATALE !!
