Northern California is at the center of olive oil production in the United States. Among olive oils, extra virgin is king and this event profiles some of the best extra-virgins our region has to offer, Olio d'oliva has been an integral part of the Italian diet for centuries and is one of the fastest growing industries in California. Italians use olive oil in practically everything. Here is your chance to taste some of the best. Each of the producers at this event will have their own olive oils and other products available for tasting and purchase.

This year's event features a fun and informative presentation by Dave De Camilla, a partner in West Coast Products, a major olive producer. Patricia D'Alessandro is an award winning poet and artist. She is the author of 6 books. When her family emigrated to Oakland, California, they re-created a little Calabria on their property producing their own homegrown and homemade food. Calabria is the ancestral home to many Italian Californians. # Film Documentary

SACCO and VANZETTI

Sunday, October 9, at 1:30 pm
admission $10 - at the Italian Center - Carmichael

This film documentary will be introduced by Dr. Vincenza Scarpaci, a noted Italian American author and professor. The film, Sacco and Vanzetti, brings to life the tragic story of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, two Italian immigrant laborers who were accused of a murder in 1920 and executed in Boston in 1927 after a notoriously prejudiced trial. Millions of people around the world marched and protested on their behalf in one of the greatest controversies of the age. Their heartbreaking story reveals the vicious bigotry and prejudice toward Italian immigrants of the time. From their lives in Italy, their dreams of America and the events that led to their execution, this is a gripping story. This major documentary by award winning director Peter Miller about this landmark story was created over a four year period. Narrated by actors Tony Shalhoub and John Turturro, the film features archival film clips, interviews of people who witnessed the events, historic photographs and powerful prison writings. In 1977, fifty years after their death, the State of Massachusetts exonerated the men in recognition of the injustice committed upon them. There will be a question and answer session led by Dr. Scarpaci. Refreshments included.

BELLA FESTA 2011

A Sacramento Tradition

This year marked the 26th year for Festa Italiana in Sacramento. This is the biggest Italian American event in the area and this year we had one of our biggest festivals ever. Festa Italiana is a public celebration of Italian American pride, culture and tradition. This year's festa featured our Bambini Dance troupe in their new regional costumes, an expanded Italian Marketplace with dozens of vendors in our indoor and outdoor marketplace and some new and exciting entertainment at Center Stage. Festa Italiana is the one time each year we offer dozens of popular Italian food specialties paired with some of the best Italian American Music entertainment in the nation.

Our community can be proud to produce such a large and enjoyable festival where we can gather for two days each year and keep our traditions alive. The weather was moderate and the tents and trees provided shade from the summer sun for the thousands of people who attended. Festa Italiana is also a fundraising event for the Italian Center. The success of Festa Italiana can be attributed to the work of our very well organized and talented Festa Committee which works for months in advance to organize the event and to our festa volunteers who help make it all possible. Thanks to our Festa Committee: Bill Cerruti, Patty & Tony Peter, Julie Radke, Carol Mollica, Dominick Adorno, Bill Giovannetti, Jeff Budelli, Bob Beckert, Patrizia Cinquini Cerruti, Rodney Nannini, Adriana Fastro and Maria & Giuseppe Pasquale. You can thank them by coming to next years festa on August 4 & 5 at the same location. See you at Festa 2012.

California State Capitol Exhibit Highlights

Italian American Legacy During Italian American Heritage Month

In recognition of Italian American Heritage Month in October, the State Legislature passed a Resolution to acknowledge the Legacy of Italian American Legislators who have served in the California State Legislature over the past 160 years. More than 50 Italian Americans legislators were identified for the Resolution and the Exhibit which will be on display on the second floor in the State Capitol Rotunda during October. The Resolution, ACR 68, was supported by the eight current Italian American legislators and sponsored by the California Italian American Task Force. The Exhibit entitled: The Italian American Legislator Project of 2011: A Legacy Of Service To The California State Legislature, will document the contributions of Italian American legislators since the first, Alfred Tagliaferro was elected in 1862.

Many of the early Italian American Legislators had a strong connection to the Italian community. For instance, Augustus Splivalo, elected in 1867, was an editor of the Italian newspaper La Parola and President of the Italian Mutual Benevolent Society of San Francisco; Anthony Caminetti, elected in 1883 was a co-founder of the Italian Benevolent Society of Amador County; and Egisto Palmieri, elected in 1884, was President of the Italian Chamber of Commerce of San Francisco. More contemporary members have played a significant role in representing the interests of the Italian American community. David Roberti (1966 - 1995), Dominic Cortese, (1980), Cathy Marinelli Wright, (1980), Anthony Pescetti (1998), Joe Canciamilla (2000), Anthony Portantino (2006) and many others have played a prominent role in sponsoring Legislative initiatives to support Italian American causes in recent years.

The Italian Center of Northern California Revitalizing Italian Culture In Sacramento

The construction of the new Italian Center in Carmichael has been one of the key goals achieved by the Italian Cultural Society in its 30 year quest to revitalize and inspire the Italian community of the Sacramento region. The new Italian Center, along with its unique and exciting cultural programs, has been essential to building and maintaining the Italian community and its cultural traditions. The building of a modern multi-million dollar Center of Italian life required a long term commitment based on a vision of keeping our Italian heritage alive and respected. Other essential elements of our revitalization effort have been the creation of a community newsletter, Altre Voci (Other Voices), to connect the many thousands of Italians throughout the region, and organizing the annual Italian Festival, attended by thousands of people, to promote our sense of community through a public celebration of our heritage each year. Our success with these projects has led other Italian communities across the State to emulate these programs to help revitalize their Italian communities.

Your gift to the Building Fund is an investment that will help us continue to preserve and promote our cultural heritage for our community and for future generations. Your donations are tax deductible. Donations of $200 or more will receive a special gift: "The Italian American Baseball Heroes Box Set" depicting 100 Italian American players in gold rimmed cards. (A $60 value). Make a donation today!
