

More Opportunities to Study Italian in California for 2009-2012

The Italian Cultural Society, as the administrator for funds allocated by the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MAE) and working closely with the Consulate General of Italy in San Francisco, broke new ground in bringing Italian, as a fully curricular program, to many Northern California and Bay Area schools.

The following schools received support for their Italian language Programs:

Land Park Preschool (Sacramento)
Ciao Piccoli Preschool (Sacramento)
Girotondo Italiano (Mill Valley)
Asilo Nido Claudia Vittoria (San Francisco)
Italiamore Italian PreSchool (Mill Valley)
Alvarado Elementary School (San Francisco)
La Piccola Scuola (San Francisco)
Spazio Italiano (San Francisco)
Mondo Bambini (Berkeley)
Parliamo Italiano Preschool (Mill Valley)
Arbor View Montessori (Roseville)
Scuola Italiana (Portland, OR)
Scuola di Lingua e Cultura (San Mateo)
Leonardo da Vinci Elementary School (Sacramento)
Clarendon Elementary School (San Francisco)
Cornell Elementary School (San Francisco)
Arden Montessori School (Sacramento)
Montclair Elementary School (Oakland)
St. John Vianney Elementary School (Rancho Cordova)
Saint Francis Middle School (Sacramento)
St. Mel Elementary School (Fair Oaks)
St. Rose Elementary School (Roseville)
John Ehrhardt Elementary School (Elk Grove)
Ciao Italia Dopuscuola (Sacramento)
Crocker Riverside Elementary (Sacramento)
Sacramento Country Day School (Sacramento)
Hoover Middle School (San Francisco)
Hart Middle School (Pleasanton)
Montera Middle School (Pacifica)
Aptos Middle School (San Francisco)
Burlingame Intermediate Middle School (Burlingame)
Ingrid B Lacey Middle School (Pacifica)
Oakland High School (Oakland)
Burlingame High School (Burlingame)
St. Mary's High School (Stockton)
Bishop O'Dowd High School (Oakland)
Linden High School (Linden)
Lowell High School (San Francisco)
Monterey High School (Monterey)
Oak Ridge High School (El Dorado Hills)
South San Francisco High School (South San Francisco)
Bear Creek High School (Stockton)
De La Salle High School (Concord)

These are both curricular and enrichment programs please contact the school for details.

